Forecast For Northern Ireland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Wednesday 29 Sep 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Sunshine and showers for Thursday. Fresh winds.

This Evening and Tonight:
Cloudy with rain reaching Fermanagh later this evening extending eastwards early tonight. The rain accompanied by strong southerly winds. Rain will be heavy for a time, dying out by morning. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Thursday:
Bright spells with showers during the day. Some heavier outbreaks for the afternoon are possible, especially towards the North Coast. Fresh southwesterly winds. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
An unsettled few days with areas of low pressure passing close to Northern Ireland. There will be showers or longer spells of rain, some heavy. Windy at times too.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.